In Oshawa, on Wednesday, January 23th, 1931, Andrew Morphy, beloved husband of Letitia Bond, in his 76th. year. Funeral from the family residence, 315 Mary St., on Friday, January 30th. Service at 2:00 p.m. Interment Union cemetery. Mrs. Andrew Morphy ---- Resident of Oshawa for the past thirty eight years, Mrs. Letitia Morphy, widow of the late Andrew Morphy, died at half past five o'clock on Sunday morning, May 23rd at the residence of her daughter Mrs. W. Crossman of 315 Mary Street, where the deceased had lived for nearly a quarter of a century. Although the late Mrs. Morphy was in her 84th year, she was up and around the house a week ago, when she became very ill. She had been ailing for the past year with a heart affection. Mrs. Morphy was born in Enfield, Darlington township. Her parents were Samuel and Elizabeth Bond, pioneer residents of Enfield, who came to Canada from England in a ship named after the famous Mayflower. Her father ran a flour mill at Enfield. Sixty five years ago, Letitia Bond and Andrew were married in Oshawa. They spent the first years of their married life on a farm at Columbus, moving later to Oshawa, where Mr. Morphy was with the General Motors. The deceased was active in the affairs of King Street United Women's Missionary Society and the Ladies Aid. Of a family of nine children, all are living. There are five sons, four in Oshawa; Albert of Alice street, Walter, Buckingham Ave., Russell of Bloor Street, and Roy, of Masson street, also Jesse, of Pape ave., Toronto. Four Daughter live in Oshawa; Mrs. J. McMaster ( Maude ) of Alma street, Mrs. C Dewell ( Mable ) of Kingdale ave., Mrs. F. Gusscott )Alma ) of Golf St. amd Mrs. William Crossman ( Pearl ) of Mary st.. One brother, Amos Bond, of Rloland Mam., and two sisters, Mrs. Bessie Braund of Edmonton, Albert ( formerly of Oshawa ) and Mrs. Ida Trull of Hampton also survive. The funeral will be held at 3 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, May 25th., from the residence of Mrs. W. Crossman, 315 Mary Street, to the Union cemetery, Rev. J. V. McNeely officiating. The pallbearers will be six of her grandsons Harold Morphy, Earl McMaster, Garfield Clarke, Rae Crossman, Jack Dewell, and Theo Morphy.

BOND GRAVES

In memory of Mary Ann, wife of John S. Bond, died Dec 4, 1879, aged 24, She's gone to that home whence no pain or evil, Her spirit hath soared to regions unknown, Hence all earthly comfort my smitten heart spurns, and pours forth its grief to its Maker alone.
