

GOODERHAM - ANCESTRY

Gooderham>Phillips>Turner>Paul Turner

Changes are in red and remain for the month

This has not been proven but from Norfolk Records I have the following:

(08) John GOODERHAM [c.1722-] mc.1746 Elizabeth UKN; both of Scole, Norfolk, England
 |----(09) John GOODERHAM [1748-] Chr: 25 Dec, 1748 at Scole
 |----(09) William GOODERHAM [1752-] Chr: 11 Feb, 1752 at Scole

GOODERHAM - DOSSIERS

Gooderham>Phillips>Turner>Paul Turner

Gooderham family immigrated to Canada from Scole, Norfolk, England.
Of James Gooderham's family William, Ezekiel and Elizabeth (Worts) arrived, together, in 1832

This has not been proven but from Norfolk Records I have the following:

(08) John GOODERHAM [c.1722-] mc.1746 Elizabeth UKN; both of Scole, Norfolk, England
 |----(09) John GOODERHAM [1748-] Chr: 25 Dec, 1748 at Scole
 |----(09) William GOODERHAM [1752-] Chr: 11 Feb, 1752 at Scole
 |----(09) James GOODERHAM [1757-] Chr: Dec, 1757 at Scole
 |----(09) Charles GOODERHAM [1759-1760] Chr: 5 Aug, 1759; died 21 Apr, 1760 at Scole

It may be possible that, by naming traditions, the grandfather of James [1757] might be James or Charles Gooderham

GOODERHAM, H. Stephen [c.1923-2002]

Globe and Mail, Toronto, Canada: Thursday, September 5, 2002 – Print Edition, Page

With great sadness the family announces the passing of H. Stephen Gooderham, in his eightieth year, on Friday, August 30, 2002, at St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto. Husband of the late Prudence Greey, father of Gay and Henry, brother of Peter, and father-in-law of Ilan Levy and Lil Simon. Stephen's ready smile, kindness, and generosity will be missed by his many friends and extended family, and particularly by his wonderful companion Denise Orioux. A true gentleman,

Stephen's unfailing support of Ridley College, the Kappa Alpha fraternity, and the churches of St. Simon's and All Saints won him many admirers. His love of travel, curiosity, and delight in laughter brought him new friends wherever he journeyed. Many thanks to the dedicated staff at St. Michael's Hospital for their care and attention. A service will be held at the Church of ST. SIMON-THE-APOSTLE, 525 Bloor Street East, Toronto, on Thursday, September 5, 2002 at 4 p.m., with a celebration of Stephen's life to follow at the Royal Canadian Yacht Club (St. George Street). If desired, please give generously to St. Simon-the-Apostle Church, M4W 1J1 or to the charity of your choice

GOODERHAM, Ronald Macdonald [1903-2002]

GOODERHAM, Ronald Macdonald

On December 18, 2002 at home in Edmonton, Alberta in his hundredth year, formerly of Toronto and Caledon. He was born in Meadowvale, Ontario on April 30, 1903, son of Archibald Roderick and Mary Sibbald Gooderham. Predeceased by Evelyn, his much loved wife of 69 years, devoted father of Patricia Elizabeth and her husband Dr. Norbert Morgenstern of Edmonton, proud grandfather of Sarah Morgenstern and her husband, Todd Hargarten of Toronto, Dr. Katherine Morgenstern and her husband Dr. Simon Pulfrey of Calgary, and of David Gooderham Morgenstern and his fiancé, Caroline Mackie, in Singapore, loving great-grandfather of Tess and Adam Hargarten. Ronald Gooderham graduated in electrical engineering from the University of Toronto in 1926. With Lincoln Electric he served in both Canada and the U.S. before going to Britain to organize the company's European operations. During WWII he gave vital advisory assistance on welding to the British Ministry of Supply and subsequently became an advisor to the Canadian Government. Drawing on his wide experience in establishing Canada's global stature in structural and pipeline welding and the development of welding standards and certification he organized and became the first head of the Canadian Welding Bureau in 1947, a position he held until 1974. The Gooderham Centre for Industrial Learning, the CWB Group's educational division was named in his honour in 1976. Among his many honours he was awarded the University of Toronto Engineering Alumni Medal in 1973 and is recognized in the University's Engineering Hall of Distinction. He was a keen horseman and was a long time member of the Toronto and North York and Eglinton and Caledon Hunt Clubs. A true gentleman he was much admired for his civility and graciousness. If so desired, memorial donations may be made to The University of Toronto, Faculty of Applied Science and Engineering, 35 St. George Street, Toronto, Ontario M5S 1A4 or to a charity of choice. Private funeral arrangements entrusted to Andrews McLaughlin Limited, 10011-114th Street, Edmonton, Alberta T5K 1R5.

GOODERHAM, William George [1924-2001]

GOODERHAM, William George; Bill passed away from cancer on November 5, 2001 at the age of 77. Husband of 50 years to his beloved Nancey; gentle father to Gerry, Pat, Susan, Jane and Mary; wonderful grandfather and father-in-law. Remembered for his quiet dedication to family, dry humour, soft spirit and deep love of the outdoors, Bill was born in Toronto on August 11, 1924 and lived in Oakville, Ontario. After serving in the Armed Forces during WWII, he attended the University of Toronto and graduated with Honours in Forestry in 1951. He was best known as the owner-manager of Camp Chimo on Lake Temagami in Northern Ontario. Started in 1926 by his father, Gordon S. Gooderham, Chimo for 50 years was one of the province's premier fishing resorts, and on two occasions hosted Canada's Governors General. Bill continued to enjoy summers with friends and family in Temagami and winters in Oakville in the home that he built on Lake Ontario. There, he worked as an accountant at Cheney, Glenn and Graydon....
